Contents for ESQ, Volume 48, 2002

Nos. 1 & 2 (1st & 2nd Quarters) No. 186 & 187 o.s.

Susan Kalter

A Student of Savage Thought: The Ecological Ethic in Moby-Dick and Its Grounding in Native American Ideologies 1

Yoshio Takanashi

Emerson, Japan, and Neo-Confucianism 41

Laura Laffrado

"How Could You Leave Me Alone When the Room Was Full of Men?": Gender and Self-Representation in Louisa May Alcott's Hospital Sketches 71

Leon Jackson

"Behold Our Literary Mohawk, Poe": Literary Nationalism and the "Indianation" of Antebellum American Culture 97

Contributors 134

No. 3 (3rd Quarter) No. 188 o.s.

Paola Gemme

Fuller and Catholics at Home and Abroad: Notes toward a Transnational Antebellum Ethnic History 135

Theresa Strouth Gaul

Romance and the "Genuine Indian": Cooper's Politics of Genre 159

Ken Egan Jr.

Edgar Allan Poe and the Horror of Technology 187

Contributors 209

No. 4 (4th Quarter) No. 189 o.s.

M. Luke Bresky

"Latitudes and Longitudes of Our Condition": The Nationality of Emerson's Representatives 211

Mitzi McFarland

"Without a Cross": The Carnivalization of Sex, Race, and Culture in Cooper's Last of the Mohicans 247

David A. Zimmerman

Mark Twain, "Hadleyburg," and the Performance of Redemption 275

Contributors 299